This UK addendum dated 3 February 2017 (the “UK Addendum”) provides supplementary information which forms part of and should be read in conjunction with the prospectus of the Company dated 8 April 2016 and all supplements thereto (together the “Prospectus”). Unless otherwise stated, capitalised terms in this UK Addendum shall have the same meaning as in the Prospectus. This UK Addendum, as well as the Prospectus, are provided to United Kingdom investors in English.

The Company was incorporated in the Republic of Ireland under the laws of the Republic of Ireland and has been authorised as a UCITS pursuant to the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2003, as amended and replaced by the European Communities (Undertakings for Collective Investment in Transferable Securities) Regulations 2011, as may be amended or replaced, and is accordingly regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland. Nothing in the supplementary information should be construed as advice on the merits of an investment in the Company or otherwise. If you are in any doubt about the contents of the Prospectus (including this UK Addendum and the supplementary information contained in it) you should consult a person authorised for the purposes of the Act who specialises in advising on investments. The attention of potential investors in the United Kingdom is drawn to the description of risk factors connected with an investment in the Company in the Prospectus.

Although the Company is recognised by the FCA in the manner described above, potential investors in the UK are advised that the rules made by the FCA under the Act do not in general apply to the Company in relation to its investment business. In particular, the rules made under the Act for the protection of private customers (for example, those conferring rights to cancel or withdraw from certain investment agreements) do not apply in connection with an investment in the Company. In addition, the protections available under the UK Financial Services Compensation Scheme and the UK Financial Ombudsman Service will not be available in connection with an investment in the Company.
