OASIS PENSION ANNUITY

Terms & Conditions (Policy Document)

INSURANCE LIMITED

The Administrator and/or the Insurer reserve the right to modify or reduce the Annuity Income selected by the Policyholder if they in their sole discretion believe that the selected rate will prevent the Policyholder from realising a sustainable income from the Policy and such action shall be undertaken in accordance with the right afforded to the Insurer in terms of prevailing rules, notices and guidance notes issued by the relevant regulatory authorities from time to time. Any action in this regard taken by the Insurer and/or Administrator shall not be construed as the provision of financial advice.

10.2. Annuity Frequency and Payment

The Policyholder is presented with an option to receive an annuity at one of the following frequencies:

- Monthly
- Quarterly
- Bi-Annually,
- Annually

The Policyholder may amend the Annuity Frequency and Annuity Income level on the Annuity Anniversary Date. Where a Policy is transferred from another Insurer, the Annuity Income and payment frequency will remain the same for the first 12 months of the Policy, whereupon the Policyholder shall have the right to amend the Annuity Frequency and Annuity Income level. In the case of a transfer the Policyholder can do the first review of the Annuity Frequency and Annuity Income only after the first Annuity Anniversary Year.

Payment of the Annuity can be paid on either the 15th or 25th of each month.

The Policyholder must select a percentage Annuity Income rate within the prescribed limits. The Annuity Income is calculated by multiplying the percentage selected by the value of the Investment Portfolio at the Annuity Anniversary date, which is then divided by the frequency selected to arrive at an amount equal to the Annuity Income payable to the investor. In order to generate the Annuity Income a proportionate amount shall be realised from the Investment Portfolio.

The Annuity Income may differ from year to year, and the amount is not guaranteed.

10.3. Income Tax Rate

The Administrator will at all times apply the published income tax rates, unless the Policyholder provides the Administrator with a SARS tax directive which specifies the rate of tax to be applied.

Every Policyholder is obliged to provide income tax registration details, and the Administrator reserves the right to reject an application should such details not be furnished.

Investment returns within the Investment Policy are not taxed.

The proceeds from the commutation of the Annuity may be subject to taxation.

11. GENERAL CONDITIONS

11.1. Age of Majority

The age of majority is deemed to be 18. If the Administrator is provided with the necessary proof to this effect, the 18 year old can enter / vary or deal with the policy. The Administrator reserves the right to request additional requirements of whatsoever nature, as may be deemed appropriate, so as to confirm that the Individual may transact on the policy.

11.2. Anti-Money Laundering

The responsibility of carrying out Anti Money Laundering checks resides with the Financial Advisor as an accountable institution. In order to safe-guard against the risk of money laundering the Administrator reserves the right to check, from time to time, the credentials of the Policyholder in terms of the relevant FICA legislation, and any other governing or subordinate legislation, rules or standards applicable to the identification of Individuals as listed, suspicious or politically exposed.

11.7. Cancellation / Surrender

The Policy cannot be cancelled. The Policy may not be surrendered. The Policy may be transferred to another Insurer to purchase another compulsory annuity in your name subject to adherence to the regulatory requirements and the administrative requirements of the Insurer and the new Insurer and related parties. The transfer amount is based to the market of the Investment Portfolio as at the date that the Administrator is informed of the transfer. The Investment Portfolio shall be switched to a Benefit Settlement Portfolio until the proceeds have been paid out. The proceeds that are payable once the claim is completed shall be net of fees and charges incurred by the Administrator in processing the claim.

11.8. Annuity Anniversary Renewal

Annuity anniversary renewal letters are dispatched to Policyholders 3 months ahead of the impending Annuity Anniversary date. This provides investors with more than sufficient time to consult with a Financial Advisor, make a decision about any possible changes, and to reply to the Annuity anniversary renewal letter and forward it to the Administrator. Late returns will not be accepted under any conditions and the annuity income payment for the next year will automatically remain the same if the renewal letter is not received timeously by the Administrator.

11.9. Guarantee of Income

There are no guarantees on the amount of the Annuity Income that the Policyholder can expect to receive in their lifetime.

11.10. Income Frequency

The income frequency may only be changed on the Annuity Anniversary date. Payment of the Income can only be made on the 15th or 25th of the month. The Administrator and the Insurer will not be held liable for late payment arising out of the failure of a third party to effect payment, for whatsoever reason.

11.11. Income Percentage / Amount

The income percentage / amount may only be changed at the Annuity Anniversary date.

11.12. Disability / Ill Health

In the event of disability or ill health of the Policyholder, the policy will continue to provide periodic income payments to the Policyholder.

11.13. Transfer, pledge, cession or attachment

The policy may not be transferred, pledged or ceded for the purposes of security / collateral. The benefits that are paid from the Policy are not reducible, transferable or subject to any form of execution and may not otherwise be ceded, pledged, hypothecated or be liable to be attached or subjected to any form of writ.

11.14. Policyholder Protection Rules

A copy of the Policyholder Protection Rules, can be found on the Oasis website, www.oasiscrescent.com.

11.15. Powers of Attorney

Where the Policyholder nominates, constitutes or appoints a third party with the power of substitution to be the Policyholders legal representative / agent and to act in the name, place and stead of the Policyholder, the Policyholder agrees to indemnify and hold the Administrator harmless against any losses, damages and expenses, or whatsoever nature, whether directly or indirectly, suffered by the Policyholder as a result of the Administrator following the Instruction of the said third party.

12. DEATH

12.1. Notification of Death of the Policyholder

The Administrator must be informed of the death of the Policyholder immediately and furnished with all relevant and appropriate supporting documentation as determined by the Administrator on its website from time to time.

12.2. Administration Process on Death

In order for the death claims process to commence and be completed the following process will be applied:

- The Investment Portfolio shall be switched to a Benefit Settlement Portfolio until the proceeds have been paid out. The proceeds that are payable once the claim is completed shall be net of fees and charges incurred by the Administrator in processing the claim.
- The Administrator will provide the authorized parties with the details of the necessary requirements. The Administrator has the discretion to call for additional documentation.

- Once the fully completed documentation is received, the Administrator will process the instructions for the distribution of the Policy proceeds.

The nominated Beneficiaries shall each be deemed to be nominated to receive an equal share of the proceeds unless otherwise indicated on the Application Form and/or subsequent Beneficiary Nomination Form.

Beneficiaries have no right to the benefit during the lifetime of the Policyholder. In the event of death of one of the Death Beneficiaries the Policyholder retains the right to modify Death Beneficiaries and their share of the benefit. Payment of benefits to Death Beneficiaries shall be in accordance with governing legislation, which requires an application of the Pension Funds Act. Any costs incurred in determining and locating the Dependents and/or Death Beneficiaries of the Policyholder; where such costs include but are not limited to tracing agent fees, shall be recovered from the proceeds prior to such proceeds being paid to the Death Beneficiaries and/or Dependents.

The Policyholder shall be obliged to keep the Administrator informed of changes to the nominated Death Beneficiaries. If there are any specific considerations to guide the Administrator in applying its discretion such documentation should be provided to the Administrator during the lifetime of the Policyholder. Where no Beneficiaries and/or Dependents exists, the proceeds shall be paid to the testamentary trust or estate of the deceased Member.

12.3. Options available to Beneficiaries

Options may depend on the source of the original investment, and / or governing regulation / legislation. The Administrator reserves the right to restrict options based on the above. Possible options consist of;

- Lump sum payment
- Payment of an annuity income at the frequency selected by the beneficiary
- Payment of an accelerated annuity over 5 years
- A combination of a lump sum, and an annuity at a frequency selected by a beneficiary

Where a beneficiary is not a natural person, a lump payment shall be made.

13. DUTIES OF THE INSURER & ADMINISTRATOR

13.1. Amendment to Terms and Conditions & Policy Document

The Administrator and Insurer are entitled to amend the Terms and Conditions (Policy Document), from time to time at their discretion based on such reasonable grounds as they may determine, and such amended Terms and Conditions (Policy Document) shall be available on the website www.oasiscrescent.com

13.3. Changes to Annuity Income

The Administrator on behalf of the Insurer is entitled to adjust the annuity income rate in terms of Terms and Conditions (Policy Document), so as to ensure that the income level of the policyholder is sustainable. The Insurer is entitled to effect a change to the underlying investment portfolio without prior written notice to the Policyholder.

13.4. Changes to Investment Portfolio

The Insurer and Investment Manager are entitled to effect a change to the underlying investment portfolio, without prior written notice to the Policyholder.

13.5. Communication

The Administrator shall ensure that the Policyholder receives communication on behalf of the Insurer. Such communication includes the provision of an Annual Investment Statement. The Administrator shall confirm changes made by the Policyholder in writing.

13.6. Death Benefits

Upon formal notification of the death of the Policyholder and adherence to the requirements of the Administrator, the Administrator shall process the necessary claim against the policy.

13.7. Payment of Annuity Income

It is the responsibility of the Insurer to ensure that the Policyholder receives the designated annuity income, in terms of the amount / percentage selected at the commencement date and thereafter amended on the anniversary date. The payment of such annuity income is subject to the restrictions imposed by regulations and legislation, and the investment Terms and Conditions (Policy Document).

13.8. Payment of PAYE

It is the responsibility of the Insurer and its Administrator to deduct the relevant taxes in accordance with the Income Tax Act and any other governing rules / guidelines as prescribed by SARS, from time to time. The Administrator shall ensure that the Policyholder is provided with an annual tax certificate. The Insurer shall assume that income received by the Policyholder in terms of this policy, whether it be annuity income or otherwise, is the only income earned by the Policyholder, and unless otherwise indicated in writing. In such instance the Policyholder to provide the Administrator with a SARS Tax Directive.

13.9. Professional Indemnity and Fidelity Insurance Cover

The Administrator and the Nominee Company have the necessary Professional Indemnity and Fidelity Insurance Cover and are accordingly insured against theft, fraud, negligence and dishonest behavior.

13.10. Reinvestment of Income Distributions

The Administrator and Investment Manager shall ensure that all income distributions received from the underlying investments are re-invested within the selected portfolio.

13.11. Right of Refusal

14.2. Appointment of Financial Advisor

The Policyholder is entitled to change the Financial Advisor subject to acceptance by the Administrator of the relevant forms. If the Financial Advisor, selected by the Policyholder is not on the authorised list of Financial Advisors or is debarred for any reason, either by the Regulator or the Administrator, the Policyholder has 30 days to appoint an alternative Financial Advisor who is registered with the Regulator and the Administrator. Failing to appoint an alternative Financial Advisor will result in the Administrator making such appointment. In the case where the Policyholder elects not to have another Financial Advisor the Administrator reserves the right to terminate the relationship with the Policyholder. The Insurer/Administrator will be responsible/liable for any losses arising from such termination. The Insurer and Administrator do not provide the Policyholder with any form of financial advice.

Neither the Insurer, nor the Administrator shall be responsible for any and all losses arising from the appointment and/or termination of the Financial Advisor for whatsoever reason. It shall be the sole responsibility of the Policyholder to ensure that the Policyholder receives suitable and appropriate investment advice from an approved financial advisor.

The Insurer and/or Administrator cannot be held liable for any and all losses arising out of an application being rejected, or its processing being delayed due to incomplete documentation submitted by the Financial Advisor, the advisor acting beyond the scope of the Advisor's licensed categories and sub-categories and/or the Financial Advisor not having entered into a valid Intermediary Advisory Agreement with the Administrator. Any actions by a Financial Advisor outside of the scope of the Advisor's licensed categories and sub-categories cannot be attributed to the Insurer and/or the Administrator.

14.3. Annuity Income Rate and Frequency

The annuity income rate and the frequency of payment need to be monitored to ensure that it meets the requirements and financial needs of the Policyholder. It is the responsibility of the Policyholder to respond to the annual Annuity Anniversary letter to effect any changes to the income rate / frequency for the period under review, after consultation with the Financial Advisor. Any changes must be received by the Administrator before the annual anniversary date, which is deemed to be the deadline date for any changes to be made to the investment.

14.4. Approval of Financial Adviser Fees

The Policyholder is responsible for the negotiation of the appropriate initial and ongoing financial advisory fee subject to any limits imposed by the Administrator.

14.5. Monitor Investment Portfolio

The market value of the investment portfolio is directly linked to the market value of the underlying Investment Portfolio selected by the Policyholder and such returns on the Investment Portfolio are not guaranteed. It is the responsibility of the Policyholder (and duly authorized Financial Advisor) to monitor the performance of the Investment Portfolio to ensure that the risk profile of the investment portfolio meets the requirements of the Policyholder. The Insurer and the Administrator do not take responsibility for your portfolio choice. The Policyholder should be aware that capital may be reduced to maintain an income level or Income may need to be reduced to maintain capital. It is therefore important that ongoing financial advice is obtained.

14.6. Policyholder Information

Ensure that the Administrator has up to date contact, banking and beneficiary details.

14.7. Processing of Instructions

Ensure that any instructions issued to the Administrator are on the appropriate forms and signed by the Policyholder, whether transmitted directly to the Administrator by the Policyholder or via the Financial Advisor. The Insurer and/or the Administrator cannot be held responsible for delays in processing instructions as a result of changes to external factors outside the control of the Insurer and/or the Administrator.

14.8. Reporting of Errors
