Investment Manager Commentary

Post the national elections, the ANC has lost its majority and a Government of National Unity has been formed. The checks and balances of a multi-party government, together with the continuation and broadening of the reform process started in the 6th Administration and combined with the peaceful transition, has boosted local and global confidence in South Africa. The economy is also benefitting from declining inflation, stronger exchange rate, electricity availability increasing, operational improvement at Transnet and the increasing chance and magnitude of interest rate cuts. The outlook for the South African economy is improving and there is potential for a meaningful step up in the growth rate following the recent years of stagnation due to the Eskom and Transnet impact. Electricity load shedding peaked in Q2 2023 at an average load shedding stage level of 3.6 which reduced to 1.6 by Q4 2023 and in Q2 2024 South Africa experienced no loadshedding with Eskom exceeding 100 days without load shedding.

	Average Loadshedding by Stage	% Change (Year on Year)
Q1 2023	2.9	1519
Q2 2023	3.6	210
Q3 2023	3.0	89
Q4 2023	1.6	-40
Q1 2024	1.5	-47
Q2 2024	0.0	-100

Over the next year we would anticipate industry players and rating agencies to upgrade economic growth and the sovereign rating of South Africa.

SA Property benefitted from the post Election boost while limited new supply and an improvement in vacancy are providing some upward momentum in rentals. The Western Cape, and Cape Town in particular, are benefitting from very strong fundamentals including well run municipalities, low and declining vacancies, strong employment growth and limited supply of land which are all supporting real growth in rentals and property values.
