The South African Economy continues to underperform with sluggish growth of 1.1% expected in 2026. The positive effect of the GNU's, Macro Economic reform are gaining momentum and improving the supply side of the economy, especially the electricity, rail and port sectors. The reforms seem to be lagging in local government and the criminal and justice sectors. The agricultural and mining sectors will support growth in 2026. The impact of the Western Asian conflict, with higher fuel and fertilizer prices, has raised inflation, the cost of living and interest rates, offsetting much of the positive impacts of the Macro Economic reform process.

Growth and South Africa's position on the global arena will be further undermined due to the anti-foreigner activities around the country, especially in KZN and Gauteng. Africa is a big trading partner of South Africa and SA corporates have big investments and exports to Africa. If these countries retaliate by slowing SA exports, increased regulation on SA corporates, many South Africans will lose their employment, especially in the highly paid corporate jobs. The South African economy has become dependent on these "foreign" workers and many businesses will be affected by the loss of skills, higher wages, fewer tenants while families reliant on support at home will find it difficult to have both parents working full time. It will take time and cost to replace these skills with South Africans. While macroeconomic reforms will positively affect the supply side of the economy and encourage investment and growth, the geopolitical conflicts, local corruption, failing municipal infrastructure and the continued assault on foreigners will undermine the skills base, the supply side of the economy, investment and economic growth. The South African economy is expected to underperform in the foreseeable future.

The key risks to the South African economy include, 1) geopolitical tension, 2) energy and food supply-chain disruptions, 3) higher inflation and interest rates, 4) the south African political environment becoming more unstable and the continued decline in local government, 5) high levels of corruption, 6) the anti-foreigner movement, 7) the end of macroeconomic reforms, resulting in infrastructure supply constraints and high administered pricing, 8) negative impact of tariffs on industries like automotive, and 9) reversal of the favorable commodity pricing.

	20-Year Average CPI	Current CPI	Difference	Latest OECD 2026 CPI Forecast	Current Central Bank Rate	Decline in Central Bank Rate	Current Real Rate	20 Year Average Real Rate	Difference
USA	2.5	3.5	1.0	4.2	3.75	-1.75	0.25	-0.69	0.94
EU	2.1	2.8	0.7	2.6	2.40	-2.10	-0.40	-0.89	0.49
South Africa	5.5	5.0	-0.5	3.9	7.00	-1.25	2.00	1.18	0.82

Global bond yields troughed during February 2026, followed by significant increases, reflecting expectations of higher inflation following the onset of the West Asian conflict and the disruption of energy- and food-related commodity flows. This is driving changes in the outlook for interest rates, with central banks starting to increase rates. Supply chains will take time to recover, and the second-round impact on inflation, particularly food inflation, will be felt over a prolonged period.

The South African 10-year yield troughed at 8.0% during the first quarter and ended the half year at 8.4% and moved to 8.9% by 23 July 2026, reflecting the shift in the inflation outlook. The OECD inflation outlook for 2026 has increased substantially from the previous forecast, with the US rising from 2.2% to 4.2% and South Africa from 3.6% to 3.9%. This could increase further in an adverse scenario where the war and supply disruptions persist. This will result in the current real rate of 2.00 % in South Africa, placing pressure on the South African Reserve Bank to increase interest rates.

The Oasis Crescent Income Fund (OCINF), adjusted profit yield with monthly distributions reinvested is 8.4%. The portfolio is well diversified across geography, sector and instrument, with a focus on high-quality income-generating investments. The Fund has performed well and remains well positioned for the current volatile environment.
